

I would like to comment on behalf of the expansion of Low Power FM radio stations. I am a broadcasting veteran and have been dismayed at the shrinking availability of diverse radio programming and news. An expansion of LPFM means more opportunity for community voices to be heard. And that is a good thing!